Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 1.56 Duty to Disclose Information Material to Patentability.

- exam tation occurs when, at the time an application is being exemined, the Office is aware of and evaluates the teachings of all information mater at to patentability. Each individual associated with the filing and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and good faith i dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all Information known to that individual to be material to patentability as defined in this section. The duty to disclose information exists with respect to each pending claim until the claim is cancelled or withdrawn from consideration, or the application becomes abandoned. Information material to the patentability of a claim that is can alled or withdrawn from consideration need not be submitted if the Information is not material to the patentability of any claim remailing under consideration in the application. There is no duty to submit information, which is not material to the patentability of any existing claim. The duty to disclose all information known to be material to patentability is deemed to be satisfied if all information known to be material to patentability of any claim issued in a patent was cited by the Office or submitted to the Office in the manner prescribed by $§1.9 (b)-(d) and 1.98. However, no patent will be granted on an application in connection with which fraud on the Office was practiced or attempted or the duty of disclosure was violated through bad faith or Intentional misconduct. The Office encourages applicants to carefully examiled.
 - (1) Prior art cited in search reports of a foreign patent office in a counterpart application, and
- (2) The closest information over which individuals associated with the filling or prosecution of a patent application believe any pendir; claim patentably defines, to make sure that any material information contained therein is disclosed to the Office.
- (i. Under this section, information is material to patentability when it is not cumulative to information already of record or being made of record in the application, and
 - (1) It establishes, by itself or in combination with other information, a prima facie case of unpatentability of a claim; or
 - (2) It refutes, or is inconsistent with, a position the applicant takes in:
 - Opposing an argument of unpattentability relied on by the Office, or
 - (ii) Asserting an argument of patentability.

A irlma facie case of unpatentability is established when the information compels a conclusion that a claim is unpatentable under the prepon erance of evidence, burden-of-proof standard, giving each term in the claim its broadest reasonable construction consistent with the specific ation, and before any consideration is given to evidence which may be submitted in an attempt to establish a contrary conclusion of patents bility.

- (c) Individuals associated with the filing or prosecution of a patent application within the meaning of this section are:
 - (1) Each inventor named in the application;
 - (2) Each attorney or agent who prepares or prosecutes the application; and
- (3) Every other person who is substantively involved in the preparation or prosecution of the application and who is associated with the inventor, with the assignee or with anyone to whom there is an obligation to assign the application.
- (d) Individuals other than the attorney, agent (ir inventor may comply with this section by disclosing information to the attorney, agent, or invertor.
- (e) In any continuation-in-part application, the duty under this section includes the duty to disclose to the Office all information known to the pirson to be material to patentability, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, which became available between the filing date of t patent by its very nature is affected with a public interest. The public interest is best served, and the most effective patent examination occurs when, at the time an application is being examined, the Office is aware of and evaluates the teachings of all information material to patentability. Each individual associated with the filing and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and good feith in deiling with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information known to that individual to be material to patentability by as defined in this section. The duty to disclose information exists with respect to each pending claim until the claim is cancelled or withdrawn from consideration, or the application becomes abandoned. Information material to the patentability of a claim that is cancelled or withdrawn from consideration need not be submitted if the information is not material to the patentability of any claim remaining under consideration in the application. There is no duty to submit information, which is not material to the patentability of any existing c aim. The duty to disclose all information known to be material to patentability of any claim issued in a patent was cited by the Office or submitted to the Office in the manner prescribed by $\frac{\partial St. 1.97(b)}{\partial St. 1.97(b)} (d) and 1.98. However, no patent will be granted on an application in connection with which fraud on the Office was practiced or or the duty of disclosure was violated through bad faith or intentional misconduct. The Office encourages applicants to carefully examine:

- Prior art cited in search reports of a foreign patent office in a counterpart application, and
- (2) The closest information over which individuals associated with the filing or prosecution of a patent application believe any pending c aim patentably defines, to make sure that any material information contained therein is disclosed to the Office.
- (b) Under this section, information is materia to patentability when it is not cumulative to information already of record or being made of record in the application, and
 - (1) It establishes, by itself or in combination with other information, a prima facie case of unpatentability of a claim; or
 - (2) It refutes, or is inconsistent with, a position the applicant takes in:
 - (i) Opposing an argument of unpatentability relied on by the Office, or
 - (ii) Asserting an argument of pate stability.

A prima facte case of unpatentability is established when the information compels a conclusion that a claim is unpatentable under the preponds ance of evidence, burden-of-proof standard, giving each term in the claim its broadest reasonable construction consistent with the specifical on, and before any consideration is given to evidence which may be submitted in an attempt to establish a contrary conclusion of patentability.

- (c) Individuals associated with the filling or prosecution of a patent application within the meaning of this section are:
 - (1) Each inventor named in the application;
 - (2) Each attorney or agent who prepares or prosecutes the application; and
- (3) Every other person who is substantively involved in the preparation or prosecution of the application and who is associated with the exemple or with anyone to whom there is an obligation to assign the application.
- (d) Individuals other than the attorney, agent or Inventor may comply with this section by disclosing information to the attorney, agent, or invent r.
- (e) In any continuation-in-part application, the duty under this section includes the duty to disclose to the Office all information known to the pe son to be material to patentability, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, which became available between the filing date of exami ation occurs when, at the time an application is being examined, the Office is aware of and evaluates the teachings of all information material to patentability. Each individual associated with the filing and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and good faith in dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all Information known to that Individual to be material to patent ibility as defined in this section. The duty to disclose information exists with respect to each pending claim until the claim is cance ed or withdrawn from consideration, or the application becomes abandoned. Information material to the patentability of a claim that is can elled or withdrawn from consideration need not be submitted if the information is not material to the patentability of any claim remaining under consideration in the application. There is no duty to submit Information, which is not material to the patentability of any existing claim. The duty to disclose all information known to be material to patentability of any claim issued in a patent was cited by the Office or submitted to the Office in the manner prescribed by §§1.9 (b)-(d) and 1.98. However, no patent will be granted on an application in connection with which fraud on the Office was practiced or attempted or the duty of disclosure was violated through bad feith or intentional misconduct. The Office encourages applicants to carefully examine:

Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 1.56 Duty to Disclose Information Material to Patentability.

- (1) Prior art cited in search reports of a foreign patent office in a counterpart application, and
- (2) The closest information over which individuals associated with the filling or prosecution of a patent application believe any pendli g claim patentably defines, to make sure that any material information contained therein is disclosed to the Office.
- () Under this section, information is material to patentability when it is not cumulative to information already of record or being made of record in the application, and
 - (1) It establishes, by itself or in combination with other information, a prima facie case of unpatentability of a claim; or
 - (2) It refutes, or is inconsistent with, a position the applicant takes in:
 - (i) Opposing an argument of unbatentability relied on by the Office, or
 - (ii) Asserting an argument of patentability.

/ prima facie case of unpatentability is estat lished when the information compels a conclusion that a claim is unpatentable under the preporterance of evidence, burden-of-proof standard, giving each term in the claim its broadest reasonable construction consistent with the specification, and before any consideration is given to evidence which may be submitted in an attempt to establish a contrary conclusion of paten ability.

- () Individuals associated with the filing or prosecution of a patent application within the meaning of this section are:
 - (1) Each inventor named in the application;
 - (2) Each attorney or agent who prepares or prosecutes the application; and
- (3) Every other person who is substantively involved in the preparation or prosecution of the application and who is associated with the inventor, with the assignee or with anyone to whom there is an obligation to assign the application.
- i) Individuals other than the attorney, agent or inventor may comply with this section by disclosing information to the attorney, agent, or invintor.
- 3) In any continuation-in-part application, the duty under this section includes the duty to disclose to the Office all Information known to the person to be material to patentability, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, which became available between the filing date of

Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 1.56 Duty to Disclose Information Material to Patentability.

- (a) A patent by its very nature is affected with a public interest. The public interest is best served, and the most effective patent examination occurs when, at the time an application is being examined, the Office is aware of and evaluates the teachings of all information material to patentability. Each individual associated with the filing and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and good faith in dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information known to that individual to be material to patentability as defined in this section. The duty to disclose information exists with respect to each pending claim until the claim is cancelled or withdrawn from consideration, or the application becomes abandoned. Information material to the patentability of a claim that is cancell do rewithdrawn from consideration need not be submitted if the information is not material to the patentability of any claim remaining under consideration in the application. There is no duty to submit information, which is not material to the patentability of any existing a lim. The duty to disclose all information known to be material to patentability of any claim issued in a patent was cited by the Office or submitted to the Office in the manner prescribed by $$1.97(b) [d) and 1.98. However, no patent will be granted on an application in connection with which fraud on the Office was practiced or attempted or the duty of disclosure was violated through bad faith or intentional misconduct. The Office encourages applicants to carefully examine:
 - 1) Prior articled in search reports of a foreign patent office in a counterpart application, and
- 2) The closest information over which individuals associated with the filling or prosecution of a patent application believe any pending c sim patentably defines, to make sure that any material information contained therein is disclosed to the Office.
- (b) Inder this section, information is material to patentability when it is not cumulative to information already of record or being made of record:) the application, and
 - 1) It establishes, by itself or in combination with other information, a prima facie case of unpatentability of a claim; or
 - 2) It refutes, or is inconsistent with, a position the applicant takes in:
 - (i) Opposing an argument of unparentability relied on by the Office, or
 - (li) Asserting an argument of patentability.

A prii is facle case of unpatentability is established when the information compels a conclusion that a claim is unpatentable under the preponder not of evidence, burden-of-proof standard, giving each term in the claim its broadest reasonable construction consistent with the specification, and before any consideration is given to evidence which may be submitted in an attempt to establish a contrary conclusion of patentability.

- (c) idividuals associated with the filling or prosecution of a patent application within the meaning of this section are:
 - (I) Each inventor named in the application;
 - (1) Each attorney or agent who prepares or prosecutes the application; and
- Every other person who is substantively involved in the preparation or prosecution of the application and who is associated with the in lenter, with the assignee or with anyone to whom there is an obligation to assign the application.
- (d) I idividuals other than the attorney, agent or inventor may comply with this section by disclosing information to the attorney, agent, or inventor
- (e) I rany continuation-in-part application, the duty under this section includes the duty to disclose to the Office all information known to the pers in to be material to patentability, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, which became available between the filing date of Title 37, Ccde of Federal Regulations, Section 1.56 Duty to Disclose Information Material to Patentability.

A patent by its very nature is affected with a public interest. The public interest is best served, and the most effective patent examination occurs when, at the time an application is being examined, the Office is aware of and evaluates the teachings of all information material patentability. Each individual associated with the filling and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and good faith in dialing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information known to that individual to be material to patentable ity as defined in this section. The duty to disclose information exists with respect to each pending claim until the claim is cancelled or withdrawn from consideration, or the application becomes abandoned. Information material to the patentability of any claim remaining under consideration in the application. There is no duty to submit information, which is not material to the patentability of any existing to aim. The duty to disclose all information known to be material to patentability of any claim issued in a patent was cited by the Office or submitted to the Office in the manner prescribed by $§1.97(b. (d) and 1.98. However, no patent will be granted on an application in connection with which fraud on the Office was practiced or or the duty of disclosure was violated through bad faith or intentional misconduct. The Office encourages applicants to carefully examine:

- (1) Prior art cited in search reports of a foreign patent office in a counterpart application, and
- (2) The closest information over which individuals associated with the filing or prosecution of a patent application believe any pending calm patentably defines, to make sure that any material information contained therein is disclosed to the Office.
- (b) Under this section, information is material to patentability when it is not cumulative to information already of record or being made of record in the application, and
 - (1) It establishes, by Itself or in combination with other Information, a prima facle case of unpatentability of a claim; or
 - (2) It refutes, or is Inconsistent with, a position the applicant takes in:
 - (i) Opposing an argument of unpatentability relied on by the Office, or
 - (ii) Asserting an argument of patentability.

A prima facle case of unpatentability is established when the information compels a conclusion that a claim is unpatentable under the preponde ance of evidence, burden-of-proof standard, giving each term in the claim its broadest reasonable construction consistent with the specification, and before any consideration is given to evidence which may be submitted in an attempt to establish a contrary conclusion of patentability.

- (c) individuals associated with the filing or prosecution of a patent application within the meaning of this section are:
 - (1) Each inventor named in the application;
 - 2) Each attorney or agent who prepares or prosecutes the application; and
- 3) Every other person who is substantively involved in the preparation or prosecution of the application and who is associated with the it ventor, with the assignee or with anyone to whom there is an obligation to assign the application.
- (d) individuals other than the attorney, agent or inventor may comply with this section by disclosing information to the attorney, agent, or inventor.
- (e) In any continuation-in-part application, the duty under this section includes the duty to disclose to the Office all information known to the person to be material to patentability, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, which became available between the filling date of
